SPRINGER

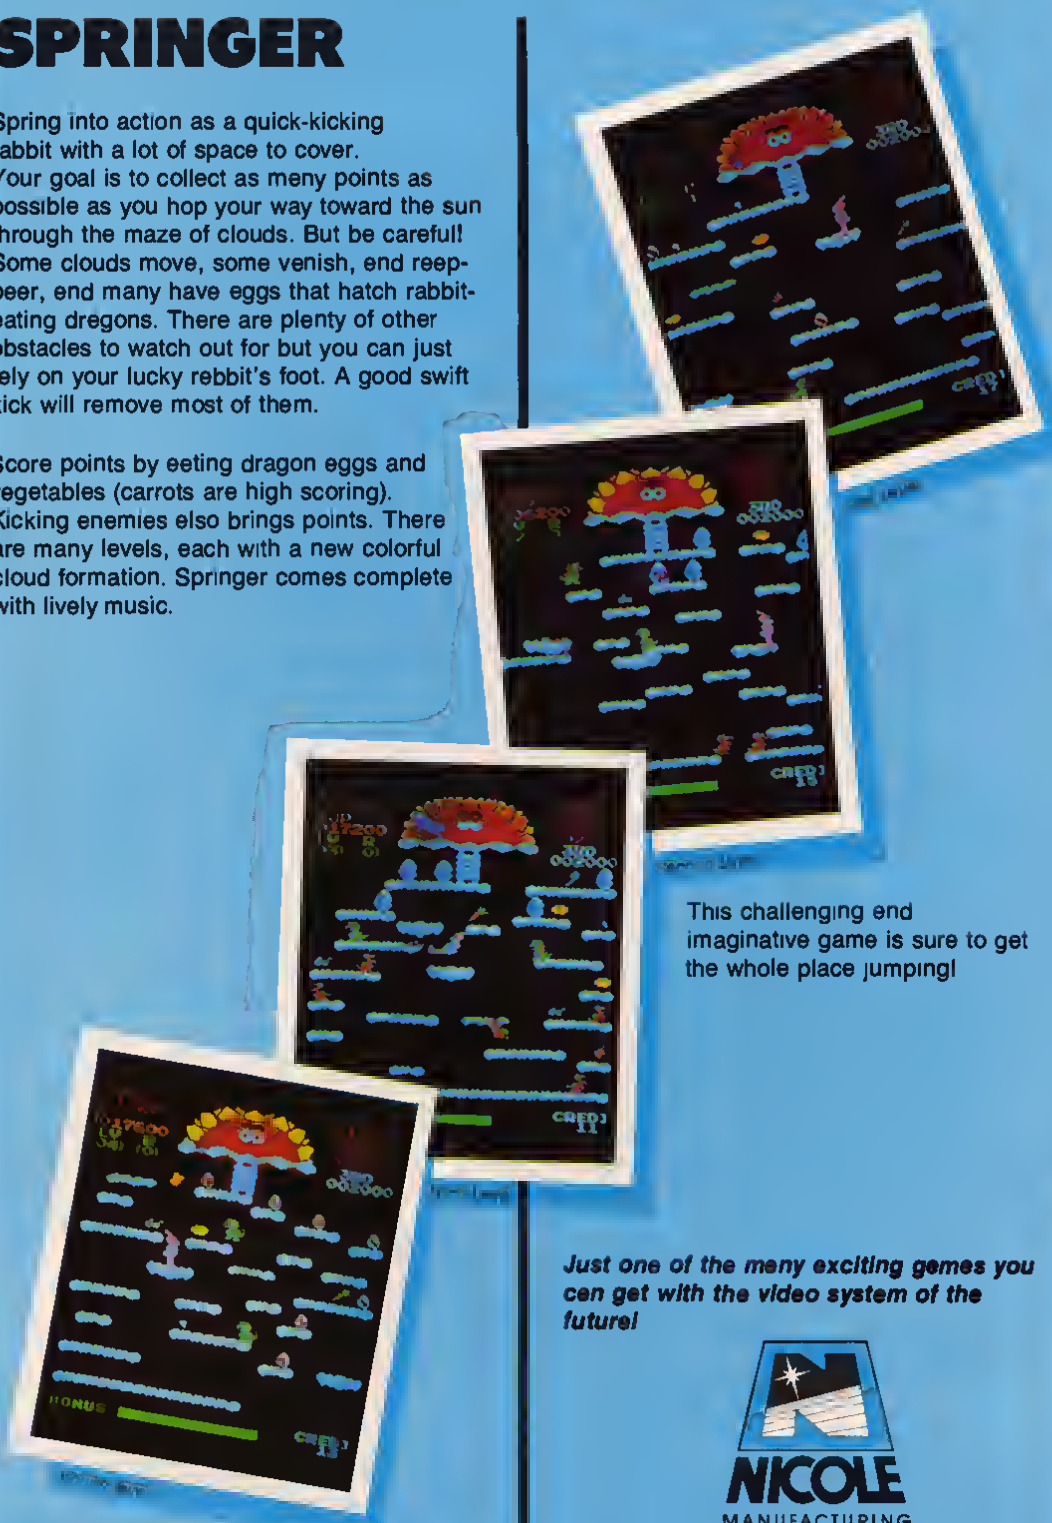
Spring into action as a quick-kicking rabbit with a lot of space to cover. Your goal is to collect as meny points as possible as you hop your way toward the sun through the maze of clouds. But be careful! Some clouds move, some venish, end reep-peer, end many have eggs that hatch rabbit-eating dregons. There are plenty of other obstacles to watch out for but you can just rely on your lucky rebbit's foot. A good swift kick will remove most of them.

Score points by eeting dragon eggs and vegetables (carrots are high scoring). Kicking enemies elso brings points. There are many levels, each with a new colorful cloud formation. Springer comes complete with lively music.



This challenging end imaginative game is sure to get the whole place jumping!

Just one of the meny exciting gemes you cen get with the video system of the future!
